

Progressive Democrats of America presents a free public forum:

THE NOVEMBER MIDTERM ELECTION:

A progressive perspective

Please join us for a lively, well-informed conversation about state and local candidates and initiatives on the November ballot—What to look for, why it counts, and how to get involved. And find out how we can stop Trump and further a progressive agenda, nationally, statewide and locally!

Speakers:

Tim Redmond has been a political and investigative reporter in San Francisco for more than 30 years. He spent much of that time as Executive Editor of the Bay Guardian and is the founder of 48hills, a San Francisco-based daily website covering news, politics, art and culture.

Dr. Bill Honigman is a physician and organizer for Progressive Democrats of America. He serves as Orange County Chapter Leader and California State Coordinator, as well as a coordinator of PDA's National Healthcare Human Rights Issue Organizing Team.

Tuesday, Sept. 25, 7–9 PM

*San Francisco Unitarian-Universalist Center, Chapel
1187 Franklin (at Geary), San Francisco*

Co-sponsored by PDA-SF and PDA-CA, SF Chapter. Get more information at <https://www.facebook.com/PDASanFrancisco/>

Labor & materials donated 09/01/18
