

Ring a Bell for Peace

100th Anniversary of Armistice Day

Bell will ring at 11 am

Sunday
November 11

Fourth & Santa Clara Streets
San José, California

With Songs by the Raging Grannies

Khalilah Ramirez & Sharat Lin performing the Dance of Peace

Veterans for Peace chapters across the nation are meeting on street corners in major cities to commemorate the original ARMISTICE DAY by ringing bells 11 times at 11:00 am on November 11 as was done at the end of World War I, when the world came together in realization that war is so horrible that we must end it now.

Veterans for Peace Chapter 101 invites those with a personal or organizational commitment to peace to join us in the ringing of bells on the morning of November 11 to focus on the desire to end the horror of war rather than celebrate it.

After the solemn gathering, the 11 am bell-ringing and a minute of silence there will be an opportunity to address the gathering with brief personal reflections, but it would be best if the ambience were more reserved until after the bell is rung.

Co-sponsors: WILPF San Jose, San Jose Code Pink, San Jose Catholic Worker, Redwood City Catholic Worker, San Jose Peace & Justice Center, Raging Grannies – San Jose Gaggle, Green Party of Santa Clara County, Pacific Life Community – Bay Area
