

You are invited to a special event to celebrate the 90th anniversary of the birth of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

The Racial Wealth Gap - How Can Freedom Still Mean Nothing Left to Lose?

Explore the role of institutional racism in driving the racial wealth gap in U.S.A. Get updated on the continuing work against poverty inspired by the 1968 Poor People's Campaign, the last campaign organized by Dr. King.

Special Guest Speaker

Drew Glover, a Santa Cruz native, recently elected to his hometown city council, will speak about his work as Chair of the Santa Cruz Poor People's Campaign.

Short Film Presentation

"Race - The Power of Illusion:
How the Racial Wealth Gap was Created."

-- Introduction by California
Newsreel Co-Director
Cornelius Moore

For a nominal fee, enjoy a Southern Cuisine Lunch prepared by our congregation's own Chef Ben Bear.

Date: Sunday, 20th January 2019 Time: 12:30 PM – 2:30 PM

Location: TSK Room, First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco, 1187 Franklin St. at Geary

Sponsored by UUSF Human Rights Working Group, Unitarian Universalist Service Committee, Economic Justice Group and The Humanist and Non-Theist Group