

Tim Redmond: “What’s up for 2019”

Sunday, February 3, 9:30 AM

First Unitarian Universalist Society of San Francisco

1187 Franklin Street (corner Geary Blvd), San Francisco

Tim Redmond has been an investigative reporter in San Francisco for the past 30 years and was formerly Executive Editor of the SF Bay Guardian newspaper. He is the founder and editor of the popular online newsletter, 48 Hills, <https://48hills.org>

Tim will present an insider's look at our new SF Board of Supervisors, discuss solutions to our homeless and housing crises, and discuss the emerging contenders for the 2020 national election.

Join us for this exciting report by a favorite raconteur and knowledgeable San Franciscan! Discussion follows the presentation.

All are invited! ~ Free! ~ Wheel Chair Accessible.

Breakfast served for nominal price.
