Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

The Most Important Historical Discovery of Our Era

Our comrade from Montclair University, Grover Furr, will be speaking on his latest research on Socialism. After a short summary of recent research on the Stalin years in the USSR (mainly, his own research), he will talk about why the proof that Stalin and the Soviet leaders did not commit a single one of the crimes he (and they) are charged with, and why what REALLY happened in the USSR during the 1930s, is so significant for us today, and for all those who will fight for a communist world in future. In addition, ICSS Member Gary Hicks, will give a brief talk on the Molotov–Ribbentrop Pact signed on August 23, 1939.

Sunday, August 11, 2019 – 11:30am-1:30pm

*NOTE TIME CHANGE***

6501 Telegraph Ave, Oakland (just North of Alcatraz Ave.)

FREE - but hat will be passed for donations to ICSS
