

Challenging the Border

Saturday
August 17
3-5pm

Monterey Peace
& Justice Center
1364 Fremont Blvd.
Seaside CA 93955

Sharat G. Lin reveals life, economics, symbolism, and art at this interface of neocolonialism, the US-Mexican border.

The Public is invited. Free admission.

Dr. Sharat G. Lin is a research fellow at the San Jose Peace and Justice Center, a community activist, and a peace dancer @danceofpeace. He writes on global political economy, labor migration, and public health. He is a contributing author to Studies in Inequality and Social Justice (2009) with a chapter on the popular movement for immigration reform.

Sponsored by:

Peace Coalition
of Monterey County

PeaceCentral.org | (831) 899-7322 | montereypeaceandjustice@gmail.com