

THE ART OF PROTEST

1960s / 1970s –
THE PRESENT

This exhibit showcases original silk-screen political posters from the 1960s and 1970s on the 50th Anniversary of the Great Poster Workshop in Wurster Hall in May 1970, triggered by the killing of four students at Kent State University in Ohio. UC Berkeley, the birthplace of the Free Speech Movement, paved the way for mass protests and prolonged student strikes across the country against the Vietnam War and the draft, for black liberation and ethnic studies, and for a variety of other struggles for social justice. This legacy of protest continues to be felt in the social movements of today.
