The U.S. government casts itself as champion of democracy around the world while denouncing adversarial countries as "dictatorial regimes." Dr. Sharat G. Lin presents his eye-witness observations and comparative analysis of elections in Mexico, El Salvador, Cuba, Venezuela, and the U.S. states of Georgia and California.

Dr. Lin is a research fellow at the San José Peace and Justice Center and is affiliated with the Initiative for Equality and Human Agenda. He writes and lectures on global political economy, labor migration, the Middle East, and public health. He travels extensively and reports first-hand on current issues.
