

The Institute for the Critical Study of Society
at the Niebyl-Proctor Marxist Library

SUNDAY MORNING AT THE MARXIST LIBRARY

Sun, March 28, 2021: 10:30 am to 12:30 pm Pacific

What's going on in Myanmar?

On Feb 1st, 2021, the Myanmar military (Tatmadaw) instituted a coup of the civilian government on the eve of the seating of the newly elected parliament. Since then, the situation has resulted in mass protest while devolving into bloodshed. Journalist K.J. Noh will join us to discuss the history, geopolitics, and political economy of Myanmar to better understand the situation, what forces--historical, political, material-- are at play and what is at stake in this critical moment.

K.J. Noh is a scholar, educator and activist journalist focusing on the geopolitics of the Asia-pacific. He writes for Dissident Voice, Black Agenda Report, Counterpunch, Popular Resistance, Asia Times, and is senior correspondent for KPFA Flashpoints. He also does commentary and analysis on the shows: By Any Means Necessary, Fault Lines, Critical Hour, Political Misfits, Loud & Clear. He is a contributor to the banned book "Capitalism on a Ventilator", now available on Kobo

About Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

A weekly discussion series inspired by our respect for the work of Karl Marx and our belief that his work will remain as important for the class struggles of the future as they have been for the past.

Login and other info is available on our website:

ICSSMARX.ORG