

4th Annual Break the Mold Conference of Human Agenda

Fighting for Food, Housing & Health Care for All

The Vision of Human Agenda and the Necessities of Life

ZOOM IN on Monday, July 26, 7:00–8:30 pm
Zoom link: <https://tinyurl.com/y3co6skj>

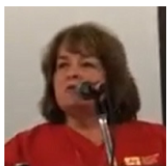

PICNIC & DIALOGUE: Sat., July 31, noon to 2 pm at Kelley Park (look for sign at entrance)

Liz Gonzalez, President, South Bay Community Land Trust; Co-Founder, Silicon Valley De-Bug; Resident of East San José

Eric Holt-Giménez, Author, The Foodie's Guide to Capitalism; former Executive Director, Food First; 20 Years on the Ground in Latin America

Malinda Markowitz, Past President, California Nurses Association; Executive Board Member, South Bay Labor Council; Steering Committee, South Bay Progressive Alliance

Critical human needs like food, health care, and housing will not be resolved within our existing economic system. BREAK THE MOLD seeks institutional alternatives that are truly democratic, equitable, cooperative, kind and sustainable – the DECKS values of Human Agenda.

Think BIG and BREAK THE MOLD!

For more information contact Yaneth Gutierrez at yaneth.gutierrez@sjsu.edu

humanagenda.net
+1 408-759-9571