

4th Annual Break the Mold Conference of Human Agenda

How Worker-owned Cooperatives, Public Banking & Reduced Work Hours Can Transform Our Economy

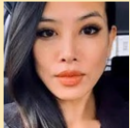

The Vision of Human Agenda on an Equitable and Livable Economy

ZOOM IN on Monday, Sept. 20, 7:00–8:30 pm

Zoom link: <https://tinyurl.com/y3co6skj>

Public Banking

Trinity Tran, Co-founder & Lead Organizer, California Public Banking Alliance, Public Bank LA, & Divest LA

Nick Cortez, Chair, California Progressive Alliance & Co-chair, South Bay Progressive Alliance

Co-ops

Mo Manklang, Policy Director, U.S. Federation of Worker Cooperatives

Kirk Vartan, Co-founder & General Manager, A Slice of New York Cooperative

Reduced Work Hours

John de Graaf, National Director, Beauty for All & Former Director, Take Back Your Time Movement

Amy Lee, Executive Director, Jubilee Immigration Advocates in San Francisco

BREAK THE MOLD seeks institutional alternatives that are truly democratic, equitable, cooperative, kind and sustainable – the DECKS values of Human Agenda.

For more information contact Yaneth Gutierrez at yaneth.gutierrez@sjsu.edu

Think BIG and BREAK THE MOLD!