

New City Mangler and Top Copster With No Community Input ! Shitty Council Passes New Anti-Homeless Laws, Ignores Rains

- Failing to provide Shelter and Storage as required by the CSSO (Camping Standards and Services Act) passed months ago, the reactionary Meyers City Council passed the OVO (Oversized Vehicle Ordinance) empowering police to ticket, fine, and seize vehicular homes starting in mid-December with no alternate resource provided.
- Rains threaten next week to drench the overcrowded Benchlands with no relief nor higher ground offered by the City—requiring unhoused folks to take it for themselves for safety.
- New SCPD police Chief Bernie Escalante and City Manager Matt Huffaker were both chosen with no public input or accountability. Repeat cries to redirect bloated police department budgets were ignored.
- The ACLU and The Santa Cruz Homeless Union have taken no action on the many Declarations collected from those outside demanding redress and protection. Chico, Novato, Petaluma, and other Cities have secured Injunctions against abusive behavior City-wide.
- The City has already shown its bad faith regarding the protections of Martin v. Boise prohibiting removal of homeless people with mass evictions at Hiway 1 and elsewhere as well as tows.
