

Restore and Expand abortion rights!

We Demand Reproductive Justice Rally Oppose “Walk for Life”

The fight for abortion and reproductive justice continues, even though the U.S. Supreme Court overturned the historic Roe v. Wade decision. The misogynists and racists are emboldened and are organizing to ban the abortion pill and contraceptives; take away queer rights; strip protection of Native American and trans children; and other civil rights.

The National Mobilization for Reproductive Justice calls on all feminists, working people, and human rights fighters to come out and build a movement that battles for the full range of issues that encompass reproductive justice.

Join the rally and speak out for the need of all peoples to control their bodies, then march to the Civic Center to counter the anti-abortion Walk for Life rally.
