"Each generation must, out of relative obscurity, discover its mission, fulfill it, or betray it."

– Frantz Fanon

The Battle of Seattle was a series of protests which took place during the WTO's Ministerial Conference in 1999. The event marked a growing movement against global neoliberal schemes to enrich multinational corporations on the backs of workers and resources of people around the world.

The Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Summit coming to SF in November is a continuation of disastrous US imposed trade policies to promote corporate profit over the well-being of people all over the world. Learn more about the No to APEC campaign!
