Here in California, there is no question about who will get the electoral votes. But there are a lot of issues and ballot measures that could have great consequence for the lives of working people. Will we finally repeal Costa-Hawkins and get the possibility of effective rent control? Will Alameda County's progressive D.A. keep her job and continue prosecuting killer cops and corporate criminals?

Join our speakers who will discuss some of these issues. And bring your own ideas about what measures are important on the Nov. 5 ballot.

Bill Balderston – Alameda County Green Party County Council

Marsha Feinland – Peace and Freedom Party of California

Walter Riley – Oakland Civil Rights Attorney

John Selawsky – 35-year Berkeley Resident and Activist
