Our community needs to prepare for sustained campaign to Stop Arming Israel

- Learn about nonviolent direct action history and tactics.
- Learn about Travis Air Force Base and its complicity in genocide and mass deportations.
- Get your questions answered.
- Get your security concerns addressed.
- Increase collaboration across wide-ranging constituencies. (trans, queer, elders, faith-based, etc.)
- Help us to increase awareness of and promote disability justice.
- Diversity of tactics welcome under the St. Paul Principles.

We want to build not just for upcoming actions, but beyond.
We are in this for the long haul!

The Trainers

Over 80 years experience in nonviolent activism between them.

dress wedding

Nonviolent Activist & Financial Consultant

In "Get-a-Life," dress chronicles his time as Dead Head and underground dealer, jumping into 5 years dedicated to civil disobedience direct action, with 25 arrests, becoming a Reclaiming witch in that process, and then co-founding Harborside Health Center, the most professional and respected medical cannabis dispensary in California, if not the world.

dress is Chief Strategy Officer of Super Processor, and will soon launch a new credit card, SuperNet, that will allow for cannabis transactions in state licensed dispensaries.

He serves on the board of directors for Jess Curtis/Gravity, performing arts nonprofits based in San Francisco. Prior to this ze served on the board of CounterPulse for 8 years.

Maxina Ventura

Nonviolent Activist & Homeopathic Consultant

Max has been involved in nonviolent activism for over 40 years, including anti-nuke at UCLA, D.C. lobbying, Plowshares, Disarmament actions, blocking munitions trains and trucks at the Concord NWS, and Nevada Test Site actions. She employs decentralized organizing with affinity groups and spokescouncils. In 1993 she was part of the Livermore Nuclear Weapons Labs Shadow Painting action that landed her with a 2-months jail sentence which she served in solitary confinement for refusing to cooperate with the prison's onus restrictions to her full freedom.

Max is classically-trained with Iris Ratowsky and Jo

Daly at Berkeley Institute of Homeopathy. Additionally, Institute of Integrative Nutrition Certified Health Coach, Homeopathy, Health, Wellness.
