Has U.S. foreign policy changed under the second Trump administration? Have other countries altered their relations with each other in response to U.S. policy? Will the endless wars ever end? And if so, under what conditions? Our speakers will explain what is going on in several regions, including Russia, Ukraine, the EU countries, Turkey and Syria.

Anthony D'Agostino – Professor emeritus in history at SF State University; currently host of a YouTube show, “Glasnost in Our Time”; author of 5 books, dealing with the Russian Revolution, the World Wars, and the Cold War

Mehmet Bayram – freelance journalist who writes for the Sendika.org news outlet, which has been shut down 62 times by the Turkish government
