The Politicization of Intelligence Weakens the United States

Source: Counterpunch

Publish date: Monday, September 8th, 2025

The politicization of intelligence is nothing new, but Donald Trump is finding new ways to pursue it. The United States has gone to war with phony intelligence on major occasions, including the Mexican-America War, the Spanish-American War, the Vietnam War, and the Iraq War. Too many directors of the Central Intelligence Agency have been directly involved in politicizing intelligence, including Richard Helms, James Schlesinger, William Casey, Robert Gates, David Petraeus, Mike Pompeo, George Tenet, John Brennan, and the current director John Ratcliffe. Slow-Motion Authoritarianism

Source: Counterpunch

Publish date: Monday, September 8th, 2025

In military coups, the generals take over from one day to the next. Civilian presidents, when they declare martial law, assume emergency powers and start immediately ruling like dictators. But the more common method of destroying a democracy these days is through death by a thousand cuts. Elected leaders only gradually undermine democratic institutions and accumulate more executive power. One day, voila, the democracy is fatally compromised, and no one can point to a single act that transformed the elected leader into an autocrat. Crying Antisemite to Shield Israeli Genocide and Mass Murder

Source: Counterpunch

Publish date: Monday, September 8th, 2025

History teaches us that atrocities are too often recognized only after the fact. From the dispossession of Indigenous peoples, slavery, the Holocaust, Srebrenica and Rwanda, became part of our collective conscience only after the full scale of the crimes could no longer be denied. Gaza genocide is following that same tragic script—except this time—the world More The post Crying Antisemite to Shield Israeli Genocide and Mass Murder appeared first on CounterPunch.org.
