At this forum we will cover the history of Black studies and the origins of Black History Month. Our speakers will also discuss how faculty and students at schools and universities are resisting the Trump administration's blatant efforts to banish African Americans from U.S. history and culture, and how this attack is just the latest demonstration of racism in this country.

Dr. James Garrett – President, Global Community Advancement Centers; co-founder of the modern Black Student Union Movement, Black/Ethnic Studies Programs, and the Modern Black Arts Movement

Rekia Jibrin – Assistant Professor of Critical Studies in Education at UC Santa Cruz

Gerald Sanders – Co-Founder of the Oscar Grant Committee Against Police Brutality; member of the Peace and Freedom Party and Democratic Socialists of America
