

Upcoming Events to Fight the Sweeps

Tuesday February 24 Board of Stuporvipers (aka Supervisors) 8:45 AM BASEMENT of the County Building (usual chambers being remodeled) 701 Ocean St:

Oral Communications (anything not on the agenda) Save MHCAN from County Takeover; Item #18: Slush Fund Funding for "Emergency Services" for neglectful, difficult to access, minimum security prison-like "People First" Armory

Tuesday February 24 1:15 PM S.C. Shitty Council (aka City Council) City Hall Council Chambers 809 Center St.:

Oral Communications; Item #8 Day Services Dawdling; #18 More Slush Funds for "Housing Matters" buildings; Go to <https://www1.huffsantacruz.org/lost/1%20FRSC%202-22-26.mp3> (1 hour and 1 minute not the audio file)

Wednesday February 25 10 AM 150 Coral St.'s Funding Matters [FM] gates

A tabling to support in survival camps those outside FM and begin a wave of protest against the schedules shutdown of mail, charging, shower, and other services in March for the unhoused community

Wednesday February 25 3:30 PM Little Red Church (Cavalry Episcopal at Lincoln and Cedar) in the Fireside [side] room Santa Cruz Union of the Homeless meets

To plan future educational protests & actions

Thursday February 26 1:30 -3:30 PM HUFF (Homeless United for Friendship & Freedom) meets at 703 Pacific (Sub Rosa Cafe)

To air, expose, and discuss current events as they affect those outside & correct the City's superficially sunny but "get out" narrative towards the poor in and outside camps.

Friday February 27 6:30 PM In front of Main Library downtown:

Protest focusing on Funding Matters Exec Director Gone Lame (aka Don Lane, former Mayor) and real conditions

Friday February 27 7 - 9 PM Main Public Library Upstairs

Author Brian Barth signs his book Front Street. It discusses encampments Crash Zone in San Jose, Wood Street in Oakland, and Wolfe Camp in Cupertino. Barth hobnobs with Lane, whose FM group supports regular police "cleaning" (i.e. destruction) of survival camps on the Coral Street sidewalks in front of Funding Matters and will be cutting off services to the entire homeless community in March.

