March is the month when we honor the history of approximately half the world's population. On this day before International Women's Day, our speakers will discuss some pioneers in women's reproductive freedom in the U.S., and women's movements in Ireland, Iran, and beyond.

Emer Martin – Award-winning Irish novelist; Co-founder of Saoirse Hurriya (Palestinian/Irish Solidarity Committee); member of Fremont Education Association

Negeene Mosaed – Founder, Berkeley Network for Palestine; member, Democratic Socialists of America; owner/operator, Berkeley Community Physical Therapy, a community clinic for the people of Berkeley

Marsha Feinland – Member, Peace and Freedom Party State Executive Committee, and California Teachers' Association (retired); Former commissioner, Berkeley Rent Stabilization Board

*Organizations listed for identification purposes only.

Please help us celebrate our return to the Starry Plough by ordering food and/or drinks. Please arrive early to place your order so that you do not miss any of the presentations. An open discussion will follow the presentations.

We will be accepting donations which will be divided among the sponsoring organizations.

This event is sponsored by the Alameda County Peace and Freedom Party, the Alameda County Green Party and Bay Area System Change Not Climate Change.
