Joe Rivano Barros:

Mission Local's Growth Across
San Francisco, and Diving
Deep Into Politics, Policing &
Power

Mission Local is a bilingual local independent media site that was launched in 2008 to cover the under-served Mission District with “hyper local” reporting on topics not covered by corporate media. It has recently expanded its scope to the Bayview, Tenderloin, Richmond and Sunset neighborhoods. It writes stories that are in-depth, multi-faceted, and often issue-oriented. It has covered topics of interest to the Latino community such as gentrification. In this talk we will hear about recent stories relating to city government and money in elections.

Joe Rivano Barros is the Executive Editor at Mission Local. He is an award-winning journalist whose coverage focuses on politics, campaign finance, Silicon Valley, and criminal justice. He received a B.A. at Stanford University for political science in 2014. He was born in Sweden, grew up in Chile, and moved to Oakland when he was eight. You can reach him on Signal @jrivanob.99.
